Dear Student:

Welcome aboard! I am pleased that you have chosen to be part of our dancing family and hope that you will be with us for a long time to come. Experience has taught me that some of the nicest people in the world walk through our doors. We have made a lifetime commitment to the art of theatre and dance and are dedicated to passing that passion along to our students.

Sincerely,

Mr. Alden Harrison & Ashley Harrison

A $10 late charge will be incurred for all past due payments. Payment due dates are on the website. First payment is due the first week of classes.

Standard Rules:

Spectators are not allowed in class. Parents may observe the last 5 minutes of class on Parent's Day. We will post dates in the waiting room.

The studio is not responsible for any injuries incurred before, during, or after any lesson on the premises.

To ensure a quality education to all of our students, each student is expected to attend weekly classes. Repeated absence and overdue lesson payments will not be tolerated.

Proper attire is necessary. Detailed dress code information is attached and on the website.

To maintain our dance flooring, please no shoes on the dance floor other than dance shoes. Please remove your shoes if you need to use the restroom.

We take pride in our annual recital therefore all students are expected to participate in the show. However, if you do not wish to perform in the recital please notify your teacher in due time.

Costumes must be paid in full when the order is placed in January. Costumes that are not paid in full will not be ordered. This will delay delivery running the risk of your child not receiving their costume. A $20.00 late fee will be charged on any late costume orders.

Students are expected to act with the utmost respect before, during and after classes.

We ask that you keep the waiting room clean. Please discard any trash.

In order to take Pre-Pointe, Pointe, or Lyrical classes, students must also be enrolled in a Ballet class.
